have been successful in the competitive examination before, he explained to the students with all the examples and finally he satisfied all the doubts of the students.

In the second session, Shri Rajendra Tongle explained how to have a stress-free environment for the preparation of competitive exams, how to plan stress-free studies and what kind of friends should be with you during the preparation of competitive exams, how to discuss the day's study with your friends and what we can achieve today from this discussion and the day's study. At the end, he gave satisfactory answers to all the questions of the students saying that it is very important to brainstorm on a daily basis.

The President, Prof. A.B. Mahajan through his presidential speech said that college has provided the basic facilities which are required for the preparation of the competitive examinations in the college so that the students can succeed in the competitive examination with the strength of determination and persistence and a separate hall of books on competitive examination guidance has been prepared in the library and the students make full use of these facilities. He appealed to them to brighten their lives by succeeding in the competitive exams and serve the country through these means.

Dr. S.K. Korde, coordinator of the workshop, made the introduction of workshop. Prof. Eknath Gedam moderated and vote of thanks was done by Prof. V.R. Wasaikar.

College teachers and students were present for the workshop.
