CRITERIA 4 – Infrastructure and Learning Resources

Key Indicator - 4.2 Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1: Library is automated with digital facilities using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS), adequate subscriptions to e-resources and journals are made. The library is optimally used by the faculty and students

Response

College library stands as a crucial educational resource, having initially utilized the LIBMAN Software from Nov 2017 to February 2023. Following that, there was a shift to the sophisticated SOUL 3.0 software, developed by the INFLIBNET Centre in Gandhinagar, starting from March 2023 until the present date. The following outlines the characteristics and functionalities of the current software. This upgrade incorporates essential modules such as Cataloguing, Circulation, Serial control, Stock Verification, User Management, Reports, and OPAC, streamlining and enhancing the overall library management process. SOUL 3.0 Software provides Member Login System. • The software provides built-in LAN base Web OPAC (Online Public Access Catalogue) interface.

The native inhabitants of this region are tribal people. Our college library provides the free internet facility to all students. The library has 637 rare books. The library also stored 39 manuscripts and special reports are almost 146. The library also has 215 Thesis and dissertation that added the very valuable storage of the books. The library has 10 braille books for blind students.

Within the expansive Knowledge Resource Centre, the library houses an impressive collection, boasting 27,026 books, Donated books 4048, 15 Journals/Magazines, and 7,092 Free Access e-Books, all within a spacious 945.99 Sq. meters area. Various sections, such as the Librarian's Office, Research Lab, and Rare & Braille Books, Coin Collection Section, contribute to creating an organized and efficient library environment that caters to the diverse needs of its users. The college library has introduced a distinct and special amenity for senior citizens. They have designated a separate section exclusively for seniors, enabling them to visit and engage in reading books, magazines, or newspapers in a comfortable and tailored environment.

The Library Advisory Committee, led by the Principal and senior staff, plays a crucial role in overseeing library operations. The library is well-equipped with 23 computers, 40 Mbps Wi-Fi, and power backup facilities, ensuring seamless services for researchers, teachers, students, and staff. Offering a range of services, including automated circulation, online catalog access, internet browsing, and inter-library loans, the library adapts to modern learning needs.

Embracing contemporary practices, the library utilizes barcoding for books, automation for accessioning, and provides soft copies to students as needed. As a member of the INFLIBNET NLIST E-Resources consortia, the library expands its offerings by providing electronic books across various disciplines. Notice boards highlighting new arrivals, separate issue counters for students and staff, and a dedicated Internet section further contribute to user convenience.

The library's website (<https://abhijeettupe25.wixsite.com/acslibrary>) serves as a vital online hub, fostering communication and interaction between the library and its users. Overall, the college library stands as a technologically advanced and user-centric Knowledge Resource Centre, fulfilling its role in providing valuable services to the college community. The library has made available a variety of educational materials on its website, including question banks, and freely accessible electronic resources. Additionally, a collection of books, magazines, and newspapers is also accessible through the online platform.
